

Middlemen are an acoustic guitar duo based in Buffalo, NY. The band got its start in 2013 when Tom Maynor and Dan Nolan, two middle school teachers who had performed with students and colleagues over the years, decided to perform on a regular basis throughout Buffalo and other parts of Western New York. While the band started off covering songs by The Rolling Stones, The Beatles, Wilco, the Band, Tom Petty and others, their current set list features mostly original material. The songs are best described as folk-rock with strong harmonies.

Middlemen have performed at a variety of WNY/Buffalo venues, including Charlie's Boat Yard, Hoak's Restaurant, Iron Works, Nietzsche's, The Ninth Ward, Raclettes French Bistro, Sportsmens Tavern, The Tralf, and Tudor Lounge.

They have also performed with popular local bands, including Bobby Angel, Copper & Gin, Crikwater, Davey O, David Ebersole, The Observers and Workingman's Dead.
